TRAUMATOLOGY An International Journal

Editor: Charles Figley, PhD
Florida State University Traumatology Institute Tallahassee, FL U.S.A.

The official journal of the Green Cross Academy of Traumatology, the leader in accreditation, certification, and deployment in the field

Traumatology: An International Journal is a primary online-only reference for professionals all over the world who study and treat people exposed to highly stressful and traumatic events, such as terrorist bombings, war disasters, fires, accidents, criminal and familial abuse, hostage-taking, hospitalization, major illness, abandonment, and sudden unemployment. Whether you are a psychologist, medical or nursing professional, aid worker, social worker, or other disaster/trauma professional, Traumatology will help you better understand how to work with disaster victims and their families, as well as other caregivers.

Each unique issue offers original articles, reviews, field reports, brief reports, commentary, and media reviews on trauma research, treatment, prevention, education, training, medical, legal, policy and theoretical concerns. Among the topics covered in recent issues are:

- Adaptive Coping in Adolescent Trauma Survivors
- Emotional Release Technique: A New Desensitization Method
- Gender Differences and Acute Stress Reactions Among Rescue Personnel
- Helpful Interventions on the Mississippi Gulf Coast
- Neurological Basis for the Observed Peripheral Sensory Modulation of Emotional Responses
- Post-traumatic Growth and HIV Bereavement

- Post-traumatic Growth Following a Cancer Diagnosis
- Post-traumatic Stress in Youth Experiencing Illnesses and Injuries
- Post-Tsunami Training of Helpers in Phuket, Thailand 2005
- Psychological Growth From a Close Brush with Death
- Sarin Gas Attack on the Tokyo Subway System
- Stockholm Effects and Psychological Responses to Captivity in Hostages Held by Suicide Terrorists
- The Counting Method: Applying the Rule of Parsimony to the Treatment of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder
- Vicarious Witnessing in European Concentration Camps: Imagining the Trauma of Another

Every traumatic event - from large disasters to a small, but powerful critical incident - can be transformed from stumbling block distress into a stepping stone of resilience. To learn what works in helping both the traumatized and those who help the traumatized, subscribe to Traumatology: An International Journal today!

About the Green Cross Academy of Traumatology

Established in 1997, the purpose of the Green Cross Academy of Traumatology is to establish and maintain professionalism and high standards of practice for all professionals who deal with the victims and families of highly stressful and highly traumatic events. The Academy represents the highest standards of scholarship, innovation, and leadership. Among the ongoing activities of the academy are

- The Green Cross Assistance Program (GCAP), which utilizes and trains Academy members to respond to requests by communities affected by disasters. In the event of a disaster or other emergency need, the Green Cross Assistance Program will be able to provide trained traumatology specialists to the needed location(s). These specialists will be made available to provide information, education, consultation, and treatment for traumatized individuals or communities that have been affected by natural or human-caused disaster.

- Certification and training for Certified Traumatologist, Field Traumatologist, Certified Compassion Fatigue Educator, and Certified Compassion Fatigue Therapist, as well as accreditation for training programs leading to the above certifications.
- Maintenance of high practice standards in the field that help to protect the general public from poor traumatology services.
- Maintenance of high standards of self care to protect the caregiver.
